

PERSONAL MENTION

Bob Oliver and J. L. McLaurin visited Pleasant Hill Sunday.

J. W. Rowland visited Clio Wednesday on business.

Mesdames Walker Floyd and Paul Deaton spent Tuesday in Florence.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Murchison spent Wednesday in Columbia.

J. W. Robertson spent Tuesday in Columbia.

Miss Ella Gaddy of Gaddy's Mill spent Monday in town.

Mark Jones of Rocky Mount, N. C., was a visitor in town Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Bethea of Tatum were in town Monday.

Get the Lyceum habit; buy your tickets for the season—now on sale.

Miss Julia Rumph spent Sunday in Florence.

Truman Smith is visiting friends in Asheville, N. C.

A. B. Welch and E. C. Stanton spent Thursday in Fayetteville.

A. V. Bethea spent a few days in North Carolina last week.

L. Cottingham spent Monday in Columbia.

Miss Louise Huff spent the week end in Darlington.

Miss Edith Elliott, who is teaching in Fayetteville, spent the week end at home.

Mrs. T. W. Berry and daughters of Latta were shopping here on Tuesday.

Misses Columbia Rowland and Marion Easterling spent the week end at Hasty, N. C., with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. McCallum and their nephew, Jack Hunter, motored to Clio Friday afternoon.

Miss Maye Johnson of Lake View spent the week end in town with her sister, Miss Floride Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Thad Bethea of Hamlet, N. C., spent a few days in town this week.

Mesdames J. M. Sprunt and Jno. C. Bethea motored to Bennettsville Tuesday on a shopping trip.

Winston Blissard of Lawton, Oklahoma, is at home on a furlough. He made part of the trip in an aeroplane.

Dr. E. J. Price of Monroe, N. C., is spending some time in town this week.

Miss Esther Maynus of Rowland spent Tuesday with friends near town.

Norward Richards of Richards, N. C., was a business visitor to our town Tuesday.

Mrs. Bessie Rawls of Lykesland, S. C., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Charity Lane.

Mrs. Ruth Sellers of Birmingham, Ala., is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Wade Stackhouse.

Messrs. L. G. Miller and E. P. Smith of Lake View were among the visitors here Monday.

Mr. C. F. Powers who was called to Birmingham on account of the illness of his wife is at home again.

Miss Bledsoe of Greenwood has accepted a position with the Carolina Milling Co.

"Cutie" Jordan of the State Highway Department who made the survey for the county roads, spent the week end in town with friends.

Miss Sallie DuBoise returned from McLeods Infirmary Tuesday where she has been for treatment for the past ten days.

Mrs. J. W. Robertson returned home Wednesday night from Asheville, N. C., where she spent the summer.

J. W. Creasey, who has been on the northern racing circuits during the summer is in town for the fair next week.

All who enjoy genuine music must hear the Hawaiian singers and players at the Auditorium Monday evening.

Lee Hayes, a former Dillon boy, was married in Richmond, Va., on the 5th to a Miss Warren. Mr. Hayes is connected with an automobile tire concern.

Mr. B. F. Gasque has returned from Columbia where he attended an executive committee meeting of the State Adult Blind Association. Mr. Gasque being a member of the committee.

Little daughter of Rowland were the week end guests and Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Manning.

Weatherly Bethea of Clio was in town assisting Capt. Jack Henagan in drilling the National Guard on Tuesday evening. The young men are showing a decided improvement in their method of going through the manual of arms.

Messrs. Henry and Walker Bethea spent several days last week in Harnett county, N. C., studying agricultural conditions. They have rented lands in that county and will plant a large acreage in cotton next year. The boll weevil has not made its appearance in Harnett and the Messrs. Bethea count on making a big crop next year.

All Confederate veterans and the kinsmen of Confederate veterans who contemplate going to the Reunion will have to secure a certificate from Commander W. B. Allen in order to get reduced rates on the railroads. The reduced rates are limited to veterans and members of their families. Mr. Allen is ready to issue certificates to all applicants who may be entitled to them.

First Lyceum Number Monday Night

The Piedmont Lyceum Bureau opens the season at Dillon Monday night, October 17th, with the "Hawaiian Singers and Players," a quartet of native Hawaiians which presents an attractive and specially arranged program for Lyceum audiences. Tickets are on sale at the usual places. This is a very fine attraction and will no doubt draw a large crowd.

Reception at Mrs. E. L. Moore's.

On Friday evening the High School faculty was complimented with a reception under the auspices of the Improvement Club at the residence of Mrs. E. L. Moore. A feature of the charming event was the lack of formality and the occasion was the usual pleasant outcome of the many social affairs with Mrs. Moore as hostess.

Receiving with Mrs. Moore was Mrs. C. L. Wheeler and the guests were ushered to the receiving line by Mrs. A. C. Rogers and presented by Mrs. W. A. Blizard.

In the line were Mrs. L. C. Braddy, President of the Improvement Club, Prof. and Mrs. McNairy, Prof. McFarland, Mrs. Walker, Misses Vashie George, Isla McKenzie, Ruth Allen and Annie Johnson.

In the back of the spacious hall and in the dining room delicious fruit punch was served from prettily appointed tables during the evening by

Mrs. Bethea and Marguerite Elliot, Mary Wade Stackhouse, Mrs. J. Dunbar and Mrs. Wm. M. Murchison of the Club assisted in entertaining. Mrs. J. R. Watson was assisted in the musical program by Mrs. J. E. Diebler, Mrs. W. C. Moore, Misses Effie Ramsey, Thelma Hamilton and Misses Eula and Beulah Braddy. Miss Sarah Barlow's recitation was especially enjoyed, and the event was one of the series of pleasant receptions given yearly in honor of the teachers.

SEE DILLON FOR SALE—Abbott Eye, kt. Corporation. cent on cost. Dillon Co. Wh. ent on cost. Mkt. Corp.—10 13 2t.

FOR SALE

25 Hereford 4 year-old Cows with 25 Calves (sucklings).

Nineteen hundred dollars f. o. b. here.

Zellobee Stock & Seed Farms
Buena Vista, Ga.

PLAYHOUSE ONE NIGHT MON. OCT. 17
BENNETTSVILLE, S. C.

THE PLAY AND BOOK SENSATION OF THE YEAR
PHILIP KLEIN PRESENTS BROCK PEMBERTON'S PRODUCTION OF ZUNA GALE'S DRAMATIZATION OF HER WIDELY-READ NOVEL

MISS BETT LULU BETT

WITH EMMA BUNTING

AND A DISTINGUISHED BROADWAY CAST

* 7 MONTHS AT BELMONT *
* The Pulitzer Columbia University Prize Play of 1920 *
* THEATRE, NEW YORK *
* 1921.

I can personally guarantee *
* this as one of the best high class attractions ever seen *
* in Bennettsville.

J. W. TYSON, Mgr.

PRICES 50c. to $2.00. SEATS AT CROSLAND & TYSON'S NOW.

A FREE TICKET TO THE FAIR!

We will give a free ticket to the Fair to every person trading $10 or more at either of our stores during Fair week.

STORES: Dillon, Tatum, Latta, Cheraw, Lake View.

BLUM & KORNBLUT, Inc.

THE NEW STORE

Full of goods fresh from the manufacturers, bought at declining prices.

We can undersell and still make our legitimate profit.

FAIR VISITORS, To you who want the most for your money, will do well to shop with us.

CHEERFUL SERVICE, and unquestionably good merchandise, make fast friends for us.

OUR IDEA OF SERVICE is to supply you with the very best things in LADIES' AND MEN'S WEAR and use that the market affords; to give you full value for your money, and to guarantee you satisfaction with every purchase.

BLUM & KORNBLUT, Inc.,

THE NEW STORE

DILLON, SOUTH CAROLINA